Underneath A Magical Moon

A reimagining of Peter Pan as told by Wendy Darling... Wendy gazes out at the night sky dreaming of blue lagoons, magical moons and most of all, stories. And tonight, there's magic in the air! Fly with Wendy and her brothers as they create the world of Neverland, where time stands still and the impossible seems possible. Even everyday objects become extraordinary under the magical moon. A sparkling new production written by international award winning writer Mike Kenny, scored with exquisite live music and songs, enthralling movement and a sprinkle of fairy dust.

STUDENT ENGAGEMENT 2024-2025

School Stage Series

Introduce your students to a world of creativity, imagination and music with The Clayton Center's School Stage Series.

Through a partnership with Johnston County Public Schools, The Clayton Center and the Town of Clayton annually present an educational lineup of performances designed to inspire and entertain students at specific grade levels. Students get to experience live theatre and enjoy a free, fun and unforgettable field trip.

Here's what you can expect

- Stunning performances: Recent events include captivating plays, rhythmic musical performances, and mesmerizing storytelling.
- Educational enrichment: Each show is designed to engage students and enhance their appreciation for the arts.
- Experienced and entertaining performers: Artists craft performances specifically tailored to the developmental stages and interests of children, incorporating themes and stories that resonate with young minds. Skilled in using a variety of techniques these performers know how to keep children entertained and involved.

Help your students discover the magic of the performing arts at The Clayton Center.

Note: Teachers who participate in School Stage Series programs will receive curriculum guides that allow them to prepare the students for a trip to The Clayton Center.
